

Learn Russian in authentic
North settings

Northern (Arctic) Federal University
Arkhangelsk, Russia

International School of Russian Language and Culture

June 2017 // September 2017

NArFU International Office:
international@narfu.ru

Web-site: www.narfu.ru/en

WHAT TO EXPECT FROM THE COURSE:

- Russian Language environment;
- Individual approach for each student – level that fits one's specific needs and capabilities;
- Wide range of topics including specifically developed lexical and grammatical material;
- Unique teaching technique (intermediate language + authentic language environment);
- Highly-qualified teachers with strong background in teaching Russian as a foreign language.

...AND AFTER THE COURSE:

- Exciting excursions (Russian wooden architecture, Pomor traditions and art, etc.)
- Extensive program of concerts, workshops, discussion groups
- Insight into the life of a Russian University

Interdisciplinary program consists of:

- Language Module
- Arctic Region Studies Module
- Cultural Module

Credits: 5 ECTS

Participation Package for Quota Scholarship Applicants*:

- Tuition Fee waiver
- Accommodation at NArFU dormitory, transfer, medical insurance and part of the cultural program at the expense of the participants

* For more information on scholarship support please contact the NArFU International Office